If you are asking if I will do a video call/conference with you the answer is no. You may not believe me but my internet really is as bad as I have said it is. A messenger call would be ok for the first 30 seconds or so and then progressively degrade and lock up until the call dropped altogether a few minutes later. I cannot do such a call even if I wanted to, unless I went to Tag Or Cebu and went on a fiber line, which I won't. Unlike you I have a life and things to do which require my presence HERE at the farm. And don't threaten me G. You are the one making an international fool of yourself and I am ready, willing and able to help you along in that pursuit with your OWN WORDS should you persist. State your offer by email but don't get your hopes up. I sent you your money back once already, It's not my fault you're to much of a dumbass to send the correct information in regards to your contact information and keep your big mouth shut long enough for me to re-send it. While I do sincerely wish you peace in your final days, and I will say it again that I wish you peace AND whatever happiness you can find, I have absolutely no fear of you or Gary or your silly followers and will not be dictated to how I live my life and what I do to make an honest living.

So I'm all ears, let's hear your "offer"...
