No actually I was not inebriated. I am on oxygen 2 hours a day to clear my lungs and didn't use it yesterday so had a build up of course in my lungs which causes drowsiness and loss of coordination etc.
But troll it as nasty as you wish with your wonderful Christian outlook and devotion.

You want the views and now you are getting them, unfortunately, not in the way you expected.
Sorry about that but you made your bed and the fact is, you gotta lie down in it!

There is a very easy solution to all this but you obviously do not want it? The plea video shows that clearly so let's just see where the ball drops huh?

I have no doubt in my mind it will drop in MY hoop and win the game, no doubt at all and if you take anything away from all this take away you took on the wrong guy.

Cheers oh, how long till you put this up and rubbish me for replying to you. ?
The guy you say you want nothing to do with and you can't stand and am totally not bothered with yet email him to get ammo for a video?

That foot of yours is getting shot so regularly it's a wonder you can still walk!.
